There will be a screening of the documentary A Good American in Vienna tomorrow. We highly recommend watching this film, even if you are not directly connected to information security. Threat intelligence has far-reaching consequences, and in the case of the world's biggest intelligence agency it also affects you.

A Good American will be shown

- at 1000, Village Cinema Wien Mitte, and
- at 1600, Audimax of the Technische Universität Wien (you need to send an email with a RSVP to attend).

All of this takes place in the course of a lecture about the topic. Markus Huber and Martin Schmiedecker have kindly organised everything. Bill Binney will be present, too. So you can directly talk to him and ask him questions. We highly recommend not to miss this opportunity.
